

Special Topics in Jungian Psychology

Classes offered by the C. G. Jung Institute of Colorado

Death and the Archetypal Journey of the Soul a presentation by Bernice Hill

DATE & TIME: Saturday, April 16 from 10 AM to NOON

PLACE: Conference Room B - lower level at 1776 S. Jackson, Denver

FEE: $30 if paid by April 14 or $35 at the door.

Carl Jung wrote “modern man has no idea how complex we are, having lost the basic understanding of our deeper nature.” Gathering the wisdom from a variety of spiritual teachers, Dr. Bernice H. Hill will talk about the soul, its attributes and its tasks. From this perspective, the great journey of dying is seen as a vital function of the soul in its emergence. These issues will be explored through story and image.

Bernice H. Hill, Ph.D. is a Jungian analyst in private practice in Boulder, Colorado for over thirty years. She is a member of the International Association for Analytic Psychology (Zurich) and a senior training Analyst for the C.G. Jung Institute of Colorado. She has recently published a book titled “Spiritual Perspectives on Death and Dying.”

Please register for this class by calling the C.G. Jung Institute at 303-831-9209 or sending a check to C.G. Jung Institute, 1776 S. Jackson, Suite 203, Denver, CO 80210

The C.G. Jung Institute of Colorado is a non-profit organization recognized by the International Association for Analytical Psychology (IAAP), the official accrediting body for Jungian analysts founded by Jung and headquartered in Zurich, Switzerland.